RE: Monica Sardina

To Whom It May Concern:

Monica Sardina has done an excellent job in illustrating the carpometacarpal joint surgical technique for presentation at multiple medical meetings and conferences. Her work is clear and excellently illustrates the procedure in a succinct manner. This allows the technique to be presented effectively during a presentation without the need of several pages of written text regarding the concept.

I recommend her highly without reservation.

Yours sincerely,

Luis R. Scheker, M.D.
